UNESCO-NORRAG Futures of Education Dialogues
21 April 2020
Graduate Institute of International and Development Studies, Geneva

In conjunction with the Geneva UN@75 Dialogues, UNESCO and NORRAG will hold a bilingual English-French one-day event on the Futures of Education.

Opening remarks will be delivered by:

- Ms. Stefania Giannini, UNESCO’s Assistant Director-General for Education
- H.E. Mr António Nóvoa, Ambassador of Portugal to UNESCO and member of the International Commission on the Futures of Education

Two panels will then allow leading global experts, youth voices, and the international Geneva community to engage in a dialogue on targeted topics pertinent to the Futures of Education:

- Education and the Future of Data, Knowledge and Research (11:00-13:00)
- Education and the Future of Conflict, Emergency and Fragility (14:30-16:30)

Dr. Jeffrey Sachs, Director of the Center for Sustainable Development at Columbia University and special adviser to the UN Secretary-General on the SDGs, will be our special guest for an evening keynote lecture (18:30-20:00).

For more information on the Futures of Education Initiative, we invite you to visit the website and read the outcome document of the first meeting of the International Commission, entitled "Visioning and framing the Futures of Education".

Further details on the event will follow shortly.

Best regards,

UNESCO and NORRAG
